To get to the heart of what makes Arizona design truly epic, you must consider the details. That is an ideal Lauren Rautbord, founder of Paul Lauren Designs, learned long ago and made the cornerstone of her success. "When you see an exceptionally beautiful room, it's the result of a hundred little things done right, from design to budgeting, ordering, shipping and installing," Rautbord says. "Staying on top of every detail on every job every day is our 'best practice.'" That ardent attention to detail is what empowers Rautbord and her team to create legendary environments that are eclectic, graceful and sophisticated. "My signature style is timeless and classic," she adds. "I believe that true elegance comes from texture, color and scale carefully layered to create serenity and visual impact that draws you in. My spaces are warm, inviting and restrained. After all, my mantra is 'less is more.'"

"We are known for serene, uncluttered spaces that are sumptuously livable, always sophisticated and never fussy."

INSPIRED TO ELEGANCE

Lauren Rautbord finds creative ideas and solutions everywhere.

- Arizona on my mind: Arizona has luminous beauty and stunning desert vistas that I incorporate into all of my projects. A client's home that is in perfect harmony with the landscape is pure epic design.
- Function follows form: Because my clients are nesting and working from home more than ever before, my designs provide the function and flexibility they need and the serenity and style they crave.
- Art alliance: I make a point to seek out and form alliances with great artisans and craftspeople. This connects my clients to unique works and supports creative genius.

CHAIN REACTION

To counter current supply chain issues Lauren Rautbord has tapped into her deep network of vendor and supplier relationships to navigate the environment and deliver jobs on-time and on-budget.

Top A large open kitchen with high-end appliances, a built-in wine fridge and a large center island is perfect for cooking your favorite meal or entertaining. Bottom This soothing and sophisticated living room features all reclaimed materials, from the hand-selected beams to the elegant antiques and imposing fireplace imported from Belgium. Opposite top Creative Environments assisted with the execution to help create an outdoor space that is intimate and cozy, while embracing the grandiose view. Opposite left With the goal of having a basement that didn't feel like one, Paul Lauren Designs and architect Jeff Innes of Cz Architects, Inc. conceived this eye-catching stairway and window concept. Opposite right Reclaimed materials, organic elements, heirlooms and antiques give this handsome bedroom a sense of design gravitas that is also warm and welcoming.
